

Christmas is Christ's Birthday

Christmas is more than a day in the year. More than a season of joy and good cheer. Christmas is really God's pattern for living. For the holiday season awakens good cheer and grows as closer to those we hold dear and find it is GOOD. AS WE ALWAYS SHOULD. But as soon as the angel is stripped from the tree the spirit of Christmas fades silently into the background of daily routine and is lost in the whirl of life's busy scene. And all unawares we miss and forego the greatest blessing that mankind can know. For if we lived Christmas each day, as we should, we'd make it our aim to always do good. we'd find the lost key to meaningful living that comes not from GETTING, but from unselfish GIVING. And we'd know the great joy of PEACE UPON EARTH which was the real purpose of our Saviour's birth. For in the GLAD TIDINGS of the first Christmas night God showed us THE WAY and THE TRUTH and THE LIGHT.

—Helen Steiner Rice

It is Christmastime again—Christ's birthday. This year has been a most eventful one for us in many ways with its moments of happiness, as well as its trials and disappointments. We have accomplished much; but not nearly so much as we would like; and what makes us feel most sad are those unanswered letters we have not been able to take care of due to a combination of circumstances.

We have many problems we cannot tell our readers about, but we have the determination to keep going until there is just no place to go. It would be easy to quit; however we have thousands of wonderful friends scattered over this America of ours and would not let them down under any circumstances. Hundreds of letters come to us each week telling us the results of our efforts—this is the "shot in the arm" that keeps us in the fight. Like Woolworth, we have many small contributors without whose help we would have been forced to go out of business. We have any number of friends who have helped us out in times of trial. We have enemies, too,—vicious, diabolical ones; and they are always busy!

Christmas brings back many memories of the past year, and those unanswered letters haunt us, but please bear with us—we are doing all we can.

We would like to be able to send each one of our friends a Christmas card, but this would be expensive and would not convey the message we want to send. From the bottom of our hearts we wish each and every one God's choicest blessings for the Christmas season and good health, joy and happiness in the year to come.

Nineteen Sixty Three will be a crucial year in the history of our country. We are going to do all we can to save Christianity and our Country from being taken over from within or without, and we ask each and every one to give some serious thought as to how he can best help in this fight. Do your part in this crusade. Unless we are militant Christians, as we should be, and fight to retain our freedom, we are going to lose it. What will we do then? Who will help us? Give some thought to your freedom—it is slipping away fast. Don't let George do it—DO SOMETHING YOURSELF!

What I am "FOR"

STRAIGHT TALK

Republished from FARM and RANCH
By Thomas J. Anderson, Editor & Chief
(As a favor to America)

"Well, What're you gonna be against this month?" a friend inquired. It ain't easy deciding, folks. But this month I'm gonna be FOR. There are so many things and people and ideas to be FOR that I'm like the mosquito at the nudist camp: I know what I ought to do, but I don't know where to begin.

J. Edgar Hoover, who catches communists faster than the Supreme Court turns them loose, has said: "Unfortunately, some people . . . are against communism without being for freedom. They are against ignorance without being for education. They are against sin without being for good."

I'm FOR people who'll take a stand. Christ had this to say about "moderates" (middle-of-the-roaders), a religious type He denounced in no uncertain terms: "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." (Rev. 3:15-16)

Anyone who takes the trouble to think about it knows there are times when the negative has a cutting edge that the positive lacks. I'm FOR those negative people who wrote the Bible, even though seven of the Ten Commandments start with "Thou shalt not."

FOR Kennedy, FOR Impeachment

I'm FOR Jack Kennedy, FOR impeachment, for being morally and intellectually unstable, and for taking us to dictatorship and surrender to the Communist United Nations. (My father didn't HAVE to tell his businessmen sons what all the Kennedy Klan are. We've ALWAYS believed it.) FOR more humane treatment for all our mentally sick, including moving all crazy people to Washington, where they'll feel more at home.

I'm FOR relieving human suffering, by killing our federal personal income tax. I'm FOR putting the Roosevelt memorial beside the statue of Christopher Columbus, the greatest New Dealer of them all, who started out not knowing where he was going, who arrived not knowing where he was, who in returning did not know where he had been, and who did it all on borrowed money.

I'm FOR the Constitution of the United States, which was written for the "horse and buggy" days—as were the Ten Commandments. FOR fulfilling our commitments to the future by keeping our contract with the past. FOR the South raising less cotton and more hell. FOR "self-determination" for all foreign states, including the once-sovereign State of Mississippi.

FOR integrated schools—for those who want them, and FOR segregated schools for those who don't. FOR the Federal Government leaving education to the states, as the Constitution intended. FOR each state allocating to each student his pro-rate share of tuition costs at the school his parents choose: public, private, segregated, integrated, Baptist, Catholic, Jewish. Under such a plan people who didn't get rich in liquor traffic could still send their children to private, segregated schools, as the Kennedy's do.

I'm FOR allowing the Negro the opportunity to develop himself to his fullest capabilities, to contribute his utmost to mankind, and to develop pride of race which will not let him force himself upon those who do not want to associate with him on equal terms. (All people are equal, as anyone who looks around him can plainly see.)

I'm FOR all churches which teach the divinity of a personal God who rewards goodness, punishes evil; and against any group which would force One Church on everybody.

"There's no use in hashing over the past. Where do we go from here? You often hear that thought expressed. We eccentrics are FOR hashing over the past. We can't find out where we're going and how to get there unless we understand where we've been. As Santayana said: "If we will not learn from history, we are condemned to repeat it."

FOR FREEDOM CORPS NOT PEACE CORPS

I'm FOR fighting fire with fire by infiltrating the Iron Curtain with freedom fighters. FOR getting off the defensive and on the offensive. FOR stopping apologizing and starting organizing the enslaved patriots of Hungary, Poland, Latvia, Estonia, Cuba, Ukraine, East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Mississippi. FOR a Freedom Corps instead of a Peace Corps. FOR an end to being pushed around at home and pushed back abroad.

I'm FOR giving foreign aid to Mississippi as we do for other conquered people. The reason the United States won the Battle of Oxford is because the State Department had nothing to do with it. I'm FOR Governor Barnett and General Walker.

FOR making it just as illegal for labor unions to make campaign contributions to public office seekers as it is for corporations. FOR a law against strikes by any public employee. Why should government employees even belong to unions? FOR broadening our "depressed areas" program to include retarded congressmen.

I'm FOR restoring a free economy in America to once again enable American industry to compete with the world. And after that, FOR penalizing all Americans who invest capital in foreign nations in order to avoid American taxes, thus penalizing all other American workers. FOR the Common Market for foreigners, and the Uncommon Market for U.S. FOR trading business-to-business, not government-to-government.

I'm FOR getting out of the United Nations and getting into a council of free nations as suggested by Herbert Hoover. In the meantime, I'm FOR letting the U. N. make the rules for disarmament just as soon as we let the fox make the rules for the hen house.

Unlike many middle-aged people, I'm FOR birthdays—simply because I'm against the alternative. But I'm also FOR realizing that the greatest man who ever lived died at age 33.

FOR restoring the sovereignty of our states, which is our strongest bulwark against communism. FOR outlawing the American Communist Party and trying all members for treason. Communism is not a "Party." It's a diseased, anti-God tyranny, a dedicated diabolical conspiracy to enslave mankind. FOR Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Drew Pearson extending their visit to Mr. and Mrs. Tito of Yugoslavia for a lifetime.
